

I am dismayed at the increasing similarity of news broadcasting both on t.v. and radio. More and more, all speak with the same voice. Do not relax the rules for ownership. Should Ruppert Murdock and Fox news potentially be the only news in town? How can a democracy thrive when it can hear at best only a few voices.